Would you like to add to your art, collectable, or antique collection by purchasing a piece from another's private collection? Come join us for this unique event—The Private Collectors' Sale at the Morris Graves Museum of Art. Humboldt Docent Council Members and the Humboldt Arts Council Board of Directors for the first time are offering for sale to the general public items from their private collections. Included in the sale are original prints by William Hogarth, Royal Doulton figurines, original oil paintings and many other collectable items.

The Private Collectors' Sale will be held on Saturday, August 12th from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. and is free to the public.

Can't wait? For a $15 donation to the Humboldt Docent Council, you can attend the Gala Opening and Preview Sale the night before—Friday, August 11th 5 to 7 p.m. Have the first chance to purchase an item while enjoying hors d'oeuvres and wine.

This unique event is presented by the Humboldt Docent Council and the Humboldt Arts Council, and is a fun and exciting way to support the many activities offered to the community, including Art Banks in the schools and the programs of the Morris Graves Museum of Art.

The Morris Graves Museum of Art, located at 636 F Street, Eureka is open to the public noon-5p.m., Wednesday through Sunday. Museum admission is by donation: $4 for adults, $1 for seniors age 55 and older; HAC Members and children age 12 and under are admitted free. Admission is always free for everyone during each First Saturday Arts Alive!, 6-9 p.m.
