Sally Arnot, President CEO of the Humboldt Arts Council, accepts a $1,500 check from Martha Traphagen, Senior Vice President, Regional Manager for Umpqua Bank and Ron Barkley, Senior Vice President, Credit Administrator for Umpqua Bank, for the Third Thursday Family Arts Night program at the Morris Graves Museum of Art. The Family Arts Nights are from 6 to 8 pm each third Thursday of the month and provides art opportunities and education to local youth and families. The event is free of charge, and showcases the broad spectrum of local artists and arts groups that provide services for youth and families in our community. For more information about third Thursday Family Arts Nights call the Museum (707) 442-0278 Ext 201.

The Humboldt Arts Council is dedicated to providing leadership in support of the rich heritage of North Coast arts and to bringing this legacy fully into community life.
