Dublin's renowned singer and harpist
Annette Griffin
with special guests
at the Morris Graves Museum of Art!
Saturday, March 18, 2006

Annette Griffin, a world renowned singer and harpist, is a native of County Galway, Ireland. She studied voice at the Royal Irish Academy of Music. Annette has hosted her own show at the Ashford Castle, a beautiful 13th Century Castle amid 450 acres of parkland and overlooking the spectacular lakes of the West of Ireland, for a number of years. Ashford has played host to many dignitaries and has recently been voted the 12th best hotel in the world.

Annette has toured America, Europe, and the UK with her music and singing. Annette is in great demand for concert appearances and has performed for royalty and heads of state and at inaugurations, clubs, and festivals around the world. She is a regular guest of radio and television. The popular singer has recorded several albums. Her vast repertoire of songs ranges from Irish love songs to popular classical hits. Join her for this special St. Patrick's Day performance.

Tickets are $10 presale/ $12 at the door and available at the Morris Graves Museum Gift Shop, The Works in Eureka and Arcata, The Metro, and Wildwood Music.

The Morris Graves Museum of Art, located at 636 F Street, Eureka is open to the public Noon-5p.m., Thursday through Sunday.
