First Saturday Arts Alive! July 1, 2006 Humboldt Folklife Festival Preview

Don't miss the Humboldt Folklife Festival Preview at the Morris Graves, from 6-9 pm on Saturday, July 1st, during Arts Alive! The annual full week fest in Blue Lake features many of the area's finest performers in bluegrass and old time, international and First Nations music and dance, songwriting and other acoustic configurations!

Gathering for the Festival Preview on July 1st will be solo guitarist Todd Krider at 6 pm, Shoshanna and her Middle Eastern Ya Habibi Dance Troupe at 7 pm, and songwriter Lila Nelson at 8 pm. Contemporary solo guitar, dynamic dance, and witty, poetic songs... visit the Graves for a mini buffet of the diverse acts coming July 16th-22nd in Blue Lake!
