The Humboldt Arts Council is pleased to announce Brad Cole as the juror of the 6th Annual Northwest Eye Regional Fine Art Photography Competition and Exhibition. For more than two decades, Brad Cole has addressed human presence, ocean, and land, with photographs and films utilizing a visual vocabulary that is cinematic and musical, constantly moving and simultaneously quiescent. Cole's imagery escapes time and appearances in order to delve beneath surface experience into deeper levels of dream and myth. Primarily using an early-1900s 5"x7" view camera, Cole hand-crafts silver-based prints of exquisitely rich and seductive tonalities. This discipline also informs the base for his films, slide-dissolve/sound projects, as well as other works. The Last Dream, Cole's 50 plate monograph with an essay by A.D. Coleman, is published by the Center for Photographic Art, Carmel, CA. In 2001, Cole was named Artist of the Year by the Center for Photographic Art.

The Northwest Eye is an exhibition open to all photographers residing in the Pacific Northwest: Northern California (from Monterey Bay north), Oregon, Washington, British Columbia, Yukon Territory, and Alaska. For additional entry information please call the Humboldt Arts Council at 707-442-0278 or visit our website at www.humboldtarts.org.

The Morris Graves Museum of Art, located at 636 F Street, Eureka is open to the public noon-5p.m., Wednesday through Sunday. Museum admission is by donation: $4 for adults, $1 for seniors age 55 and older; HAC Members and children age 12 and under are admitted free.
