

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

Date: October 19, 2007

Contact: Rebecca Froehlich rebecca@humboldtarts.org (707) 442- 0278 ext. 201.

Headline: Local Artist and Humboldt Arts Council Board Member wins National Amateur Photographer Award

Local artist and Humboldt Arts Council Board Member Jim Lowry has won the September 2007 National Amateur Photographer Award for "American Lake" as part of the National Photography Awards. The competition was judged by nationally recognized judges and has divisions for both amateurs and professionals. This photograph will be on exhibit and for sale at the Morris Graves Museum of Art located at 636 F Street, Eureka. All winning photographs can be viewed at www.NationalPhotoAwards.com. For more information contact Museum Programs Manager Rebecca Froehlich at (707) 442.0278 ext. 201.

#