First Thursday Film Night Presents:

Iron Ladies of Liberia
by Henry Ansbacher, Jonathan Stack and Daniel Junge
at the Morris Graves Museum of Art
Thursday March 6, 2008
6-7:30pm

Join the Humboldt Arts Council and the Morris Graves Museum of Art (MGMA) in conjunction with KEET-TV and Humboldt State University as they present Iron Ladies of Liberia by Henry Ansbacher, Jonathan Stack and Daniel Junge March 6, 2008, from 6-7:30pm the Morris Graves Museum of Art. This is a FREE monthly event.

Iron Ladies of Liberia is an intimate documentary that goes behind the scenes with Africa's first freely elected female head of state, Ellen Johnson Sirleaf, president of Liberia.

First Thursday Film Night, as part of larger project, ITVS COMMUNITY CINEMA, is a monthly screening series showcasing the Emmy Award-winning PBS series Independent Lens. Presented in partnership with KEET TV, the Morris Graves Museum of Art and Humboldt State University, ITVS COMMUNITY CINEMA aims to build connections among diverse communities, public television stations and leading community organizations working on a range of important social issues.
